Ceremonial Cacao is a revered plant medicine that has been used for centuries to facilitate emotional, spiritual, and physical healing. This heart-opening elixir, made from raw cacao beans, is traditionally prepared and consumed in ceremonial settings to deepen introspection, enhance meditation, and foster a sense of connection and community.

Through this sacred practice, participants can access profound states of healing and personal transformation.

From foundational principles to advanced techniques, our curriculum is structured to guide you through the intricacies of cacao ceremony facilitation at all levels. You will learn in an environment that honors tradition while embracing the individual journey of each student.
